

Dilan Urun Appointed Managing Director of Sales of Four Seasons Private Residences At 706 Mission Street, San Francisco

After Overseeing Record-Breaking Sales at 181 Fremont, Urun Will Direct Sales for The New Ultra-Luxury Residential Project in the Heart of San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO (February 5, 2019) – Four Seasons Private Residences at 706 Mission Street, San Francisco is pleased to announce the appointment of Dilan Urun as the managing director of sales for the new ultra-luxury condo project centrally located in the city's vibrant Yerba Buena arts and culture district.

Urun brings extensive knowledge of the market and a deep understanding of the luxury consumer to the role and was most recently Director of Sales at 181 Fremont Residences, an $850 million mixed-use tower that set the current benchmark for luxury high-rises in San Francisco.

"Buyers are gravitating toward a more exclusive, boutique lifestyle and placing tremendous value on exceptional service," noted Urun, who has witnessed the San Francisco skyline shift since entering the real estate landscape in 2001. "I'm confident that Four Seasons Private Residences at 706 Mission Street will deliver an experience that will exceed expectations. This property will be on the forefront of urban luxury living, delivering unmatched service with luxurious club-level amenities alongside exceptional residential experiences."

Four Seasons Private Residences at 706 Mission Street, San Francisco

Comprising a new 45-storey tower alongside the renovated historic Aronson Building and incorporating 146 spacious residences, Four Seasons Private Residences at 706 Mission Street is the second North American standalone Four Seasons Private Residences. Slated for completion in 2020, the highly-anticipated Four Seasons Private Residences at 706 Mission Street, San Francisco will offer homeowners a luxurious, amenity-rich lifestyle as part of their everyday experience in one of the world's most sought-after destinations.

Appointed with the finest in finishes as well as the latest technology offerings, the amenity floor on the building's fifth level will be the heart of the "neighborhood in the clouds." Offerings include a state-of-the-art fitness center, lounge with a bar, private dining and landscaped outdoor terrace with three firepits, affording residents a space to socialize day and night within a discerning community of owners and their guests. A well-appointed game room will feature a magnificent media wall for a modern entertainment experience, and a residential club will be staffed by a dedicated concierge and a bartender each night.

In addition to enjoying enriching experiences and outstanding amenities inside the building, residents of the new Four Seasons Private Residences will be surrounded by the creativity and ingenuity of nearby San Francisco startups, the renowned retail shopping at Union Square, nearby parks and greenery, and cultural destinations such as San Francisco Museum of Modern Art, the Contemporary Jewish Museum, and Yerba Buena Center for the Arts.
